Is there an expected beginning date for the IPG program?	The application process for the IPG program is expected to begin in June 2021. We have currently launched an Expression of Interest period, where entities interested in the program can provide a general description of their economic development project. Designated Housing Department staff will review the completed forms to gauge interest and compile a group of eligible projects to provide a report on the program's design, outreach, and implementation efforts. The last day to submit an Expression of Interest is April 3, 2021.
